

GENERAL EDUCATION: Thinking Globally

This course fulfills Thinking Globally GE requirement because it emphasizes understanding how religious and cultural experiences and processes that occur in one part of the world impact other regions. The course seeks to instill reflex awareness of that with other regions visited during the program. The course looks past taking core samples of religions in different cultures, and instead seeks to unpack multi-directional influences on and connections across regions. Particular attention will be paid to the r